PURE FITNESS IN THE HEART OF ORCHARD

Asia's leading lifestyle brand to unveil world-class fitness club this August 19 May 2010 - Pure Fitness, Asia's premium fitness club, is set to expand its operations regionally with the opening this August of a world-class fitness club in the heart of Singapore's most effervescent shopping district, Orchard Road. It will be located at Knightsbridge, the retail podium of Park Hotel Group's stylish and newly refurbished flagship property, Grand Park Orchard, which opens this July.

The conveniently situated 15,000 sq-ft club will offer the world's best fitness facilities and services dedicated to helping each of its clients build a balanced, healthier and happier life. The opening of Pure Fitness in Singapore follows Pure Group's successful establishment of two Pure Yoga studios at Ngee Ann City and Raffles Place in recent years.

Colin Grant, CEO of The Pure Group said, "I am extremely delighted to be bringing the Pure Fitness experience to Singapore. Pure prides itself on being a dynamic, cutting-edge company. We are entering the Singapore market with the promise to deliver a unique brand of fitness that focuses on well-being as a lifestyle, easily compatible with cosmopolitan living. I believe that we will connect with Singaporeans by bringing them a positive and highly personalised fitness experience through our facilities, our service and our team. We are planning to rapidly grow our business in Asia and are looking at expansion to 3 more new locations in Singapore over the next 2 years."

Allen Law, Director of Knightsbridge and Park Hotel Group, said, "We are thrilled that Pure Fitness has chosen Knightsbridge to deliver its world-class fitness experience at the heart of Orchard Road. Together with the opening of our flagship hotel, Orchard Road's allure as a vibrant lifestyle destination will be unparalleled."

Under the guidance of professionally certified instructors and trainers, Pure Fitness members will enjoy result-oriented training using advanced cardio machines and a full range of top-notch strength and resistance equipment. For those keen on combining regular workouts with the benefits of a tailored personal training programme, complimentary fitness induction sessions will also be available.

With state-of-the-art cycling and group fitness studios, there is an abundance of choice in more than 80 weekly group exercise classes that cover 30 innovative training programmes from around the world. Led by a team of international instructors, the diversity of offerings includes TRX, Hip Hop Dance, Muay Thai, Latino Jam, Pilates, Yoga, Aerobics, Boxing, Pole Dancing, Cycling, and world-recognised Les Mills programmes such as BODYPUMP™, BODYCOMBAT™ and BODYBALANCE™.

In addition to its emphasis on a superior physical conditioning experience Pure Fitness in Singapore will pull out all the stops pampering its members with a modern rain forest shower system, excellent sauna and steam facilities, and a spacious relaxation lounge. The lounge will feature a refreshment bar that serves complimentary freshly-ground coffee, soft drinks and fruit, and offers complimentary Wi-Fi access, DVDs, magazines and newspapers. Workout clothes, towels and toiletries are also provided at no charge.

Pure Fitness pre-sale memberships will commence in early July 2010 and new members have the chance to enjoy premium and exclusive membership privileges, joining gifts, complimentary trial sessions at Pure Yoga, and shopping discounts at Pure Retail.

Pure Fitness will be fully operational by mid August 2010 and will be located on Level 3, Knightsbridge, 270 Orchard Road.
